

The public quay is a busy spot for water activities and events, offering views into the harbor.